Dave has been working in the real estate industry for over 30 years, both on the commercial and residential side of the business. He spent the first 10 years in the retail arena managing and leasing centers in Utah & Idaho.

The next 12 years were in the commercial property management field with national companies like Grubb & Ellis, where Dave was Regional Vice President for the Intermountain Area. He managed five offices overseeing 55 employees and 8,000,000 SF of commercial space. Additionally, Dave worked for regional companies such as Quadrant Property Management Services as their Vice President and oversaw four offices with 35 employees, managing 5,000,000 SF.

During the last 10 years Dave has had his own company and completed both commercial and residential transactions.

Working in real estate for so many years and in a variety of areas, Dave has acquired a wealth of knowledge and practical experience.

Motto: "The most important things in life aren't things, but people."

Dave holds active real estate licenses in Idaho & Utah.

Personal: Wife; Susan, 5 children, 11 grandchildren
